The many amusements at Sylvan beach in the afternoon and a glance at the official programme will convince every one that the amusement and prize committees did not overlook the chances of every one to win a prize or have a delightful time. Judge Moore of Edna will talk on organized labor and its advantages.

It is expected that the capacity of Sylvan park and pier will be tested on the 4th, as the round trip fare is only 50 cents, it being the lowest rate of the season and the last attraction at La Porte this sensou. All stores in the city will likely close in the afternoon. No doubt the celebration will be a magnificent one and a financial success for the Houston Labor Council.

This will be the largest and best arranged parade that organized labor has ever shown the people of Houston, as several organizations will compete for the handsome gold medal for the best general display, donated by Mr. Wm. A. Hunter of the Clerks' union. There is also a first and second prize offered for the largest unions in line. The parade will begin to form at 9:30 a. m. and as the town clock strikes 10 o'clock Grand Marshal McNeely will give the order to "forward march." and at 11 a. m. the parade will be over. At 12 o'clock noon the La Porte road will run the first excursion train to Sylvan beach, the second at 1:40 p. m., the third at 3:30 p. m. and fourth at 6 p. m. The returning trains will leave La Porte at 7:45 and 10:45 p. m. and will be run in sections. If necessary, to accommodate the crowd.
